COMPETITION RULES

General rules: most of the International Judo Federation (IJF) rules are to be complied with. Certain specificities have been added, in compliance with the French Federation (FFJDA) rules or the organizer's own rules and to adapt for disabled people. The FFH's rules will be enforced to all competitors during mixed fight « disabled-abled persons ».

As from 01.01.2018, the new FFJDA rules will apply in France : notably : 2 WAZA ARI = IPPON

Facilities for receiving disabled competitors :

- * Deaf people or people having hearing impairment : without facilities,
- * Blind people or people having impaired vision : fight in lower weight class with seizure of the judogi,
- * People having mental disabilities : fight in lower weight class,
- * People in wheelchairs or in restricted mobility: fight only in Ne-Waza and in lower weight class (abled competitors will have to accept this characteristic),

The facilities will be individually handled for some of the orphan diseases, rare diseases and light autism.

The abled competitors accept the rules by making a commitment.

During mixed fight « disabled-abled persons » :

Specification :

People in wheelchairs will be only in Ne-Waza.

Example :

- Deaf people or people having hearing impairment will open the fight as well in FFH's rules with seizure of the judogi, abled competitor will fight only with his/her hands in seizure.

1. Conditions of participation

Each federation affiliated to the IJF may enter as many athletes as it desires.

Each athlete can participate only in one weight category and in one age group.

However, organizers may decide to combine some categories according to number of competitors.
